CLARA WAIDLEY

BIO

Clara Waidley is a poignant singer-songwriter carving their own pathway into a decaf rock n roll world. Clara masters walking the line between gallows humor and genuine optimism. A wanderer at heart, Clara has most recently lived in Savannah, Georgia after a stint in Nashville. With roots in Michigan and Southern California, the young surfer takes her guitar with her to perform on the road. Her music was born in her childhood bedroom, but after busking on road trips and gathering a following of 134.8K followers on TikTok, Clara's sun-soaked music has found a global audience.
